Mrs. D. Ward, Ma N. Carliste St., Philadelphia, Pa., says:

"I want people to know what a wonderful medicine Dr. Greene's Nervura is. My little daughter, Blanche, was stricken with St.
Nervura is. My little daughter, Blanche, was stricken with St.
Vitus' dance. We had the best physicians attend her, but she grew steadily worse until she was as helpless as an infant. She couldn't speak one word or keep still for one haif minute at a time. I was driven almost to despair. I just left off their medicine and went to the nearest druggist's and got a bottle of Dr. Greene's Nervura and gave it to her. She slept better that night and I continued it all the next day and night without letting the doctor knew of the thance. He called in two days and pronounced her so per cent hetter. I then dismissed all the doctors and gave her only Dr.
Greene's Nervura, and it cured her in three weeks' time."

Use Dr. Greene's Nervura at once, and consult or write to Dr.
Greene, to West lath St., New York City, about the case. Dr. Greene is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic complaints, and makes no charge for consultation and advice.

"I have not the least doubt that there is much personal feeling against Mr. Gunn and behind the charges preferred against him." said a State official yesterday, referring to the case of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of Radford, who had been suspended from office pending the investigation of charges of having received money from publishing houses. "I do not know a great deal of the case, but I know enough of it to believe my view the correct one." A letter was received here from Mr. Gunn yesterday, stating that he would appear before the State Board of Education and answer to the charges. "He is now in Bessemer, Ala. He stated that he would be ready to meet the board as soon as certain business affairs had been

FOR LABOR COMMISSIONER.

As Governor Tyler has not yet announced his selection for the position of Labor Commissioner, letters endorsing various applicants are pouring in. The Governor received from Mr. T. V. Powderly, formerly at the head of the Knights of Labor, a letter warmly endorsing Mr. W. H. Mullen, of this city.

Governor Tyler was quite anxious to have the cadets of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg attend the unveiling of the Winnle Davis monument in this city, and to Dr. R. M. McBryde, the president of the institution, to know if it were possible to have the boys down. The request was made quite recently, and yesterday a reply was received from Dr. McBryde, stating that as the time was so short it would not be possible to arrange to bring the boys here.

HOMES FOR WAIFS.

Rev. D. W. Comsteck, superintendent of the Children's Home Society, of West Virginia, is progressing well with his mission in this State and city. He is here to organize a Children's Home Society in this city.

The purposes of the institution are to get legal possession of the children of fallen women, of women who are sent to jails, and of those children who are deserted by their mothers.

birth, and placed in refined and Christian homes. Societies have been organized in twenty-six States of the Union. The central office is in Chicago.

Mr. Comstock visited four of the pastors' conferences of the city yesterday morning. He was given a very attentive and sympathetic hearing at each. He wishes to get the ministers of the various denominations in the city to uselst him. He asked for committees to be supported to suggest to him represenbe appointed to suggest to him represen-tative men who would probably consent to become charter members of the Virginia Society. In two instances, at least, his request was promptly complied with. This week he will apply for a charter for the society. Richardson-Southall.

A pretty but quiet marriage took place in Washington last Thursday evening, when Miss Carrie B. Southall formerly of Richmond, became the bride of Mr. Frank E. Richardson, of New York city. The bride, who is the only Caughter of Mrs. E. F. Southall, and a granddaughter of the late Captain Robert H. Style, is a decided blonde, and was becomingly attired in a travelling suit of gray, with hat and gloves to match. Mr. Richardson, who is a popular young tusiness man of New York, was fermerly of Addison, Pa., where he met Miss Southall six years ago, while she was attending school there. The only attendants were Miss Ola B. Wood, of Gordonsville, Va., maid of honor, and Mr. George A. Southall, a brother of the bride, who acted as best man. HEADAONE Positively cured by these
